

Vision Quilt Agreement

Thank you so much for participating in the Vision Quilt!

We want to clarify how we will be using the quilt panels. The Vision Quilt Project will assume ownership of each art panel submitted to the Project and does not assume responsibility for loss or damage to said panels. It reserves the right to display these pieces visually and digitally, including in a variety of media. The Vision Quilt Project reserves the right to transport art panels, lend panels to interested groups and organizations or store the panels as it deems necessary for the protection of the pieces or whenever exhibits or events are terminated. We hope you can support these efforts by signing this agreement. Thank you!
